

THE LITTLE THEATER

PRESENTS

THREE ONE-ACT PLAYS

Thursday Evening, November 2, 1939

CENTRAL SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

I

"FOR DISTINGUISHED SERVICE"

by Knox

PLACE—Boudoir of Miss Katharine Burton, wealthy member of New York's smart set.

TIME —Afternoon—late November

CHARACTERS

Miss Katharine Burton	Frances Benton
Mrs. Jim Harding, otherwise Ethel	Margaret Scott
Mary, Miss Burton's maid	Belle Chandler

II

"ENTER THE HERO"

by Theresa Helburn

PLACE—Living room of the Carey home in a small Southern town.

TIME —Afternoon—early fall.

CHARACTERS

Anne Carey—A romantic girl in her twenties	Mary Frances Jones
Ruth Carey—Her younger sister	Julia Warren
Mrs. Carey—Their mother	Mary Wells
Harold Lawson—Young Civil Engineer	Frank Bostick

III

"DWELLERS IN THE DARKNESS"

by Reginald Berkeley

PLACE—Picturesque old country house in a secluded section of New England.

TIME —A gloomy winter evening.

CHARACTERS

Phyllis—Attractive daughter of the house	Gussie Williams
Mrs. Vyner—Her mother	Helen Taylor
Mr. Vyner—Her father	D. G. Harris
Mr. Mortimer	Frank Bagnal
Henry	Howard Jennings
Professor Urquart	William T. Reeder
The Ghost	Ralph Holland

FURNITURE BY LIBERTY FURNITURE CO.